

Earthworks Testing

Kiwa CMT Testing is a well-established accredited site and laboratory testing and investigation company providing, structural, physical, chemical, geotechnical and geo-environmental testing for a varied client base, in connection with building, construction, civil engineering, highways and associated industries throughout the UK.

Our dedicated and qualified team of experts provide services for all your inspection, testing and investigation needs.

Our Range of Services Include:

Soils, Geotechnical and Site Investigation

Our technical expertise cover a broad range of clients requirements for site investigation and laboratory testing.

These Include:

- In situ CBR Testing
- Plate Bearing Testing
- Nuclear Density Testing
- Grading Analysis
- Plasticity Index
- Moisture Content

Concrete and Building Material

The sampling and making of concrete cubes on site and return them for testing, in strict accordance with BS EN 12390 at our UKAS* accredited laboratory.

Chemistry/Geo-environmental

Sampling and testing for off site disposal under Waste Acceptance Criteria (WAC) and the Analysis for Chemical Contamination

For advice and Services on any issues relating to the Earthworks please contact

Richard Cartlidge

Geotechnical Department Manager

T: 01332 383333

E: richard.cartlidge@kiwa.com or alternatively you can speak to any member of the Geotechnical department of the same number

Our accreditations speak for themselves
Kiwa CMT Testing is a UKAS accredited Laboratory.
Details of tests included in our current schedule can be seen at www.ukas.org.

We are also CHAS accredited and Constructionline registered so you know you can depend on our credentials.

www.kiwa.co.uk/cmt

