

Regulatory Alert – Paraguay

Delays to lead-time of Approvals issued by Regulator in Paraguay due to political unrest.

PCS have recently been informed that delays in the lead-time of Approvals are to be expected at the Authority in Paraguay (CONATEL) due to the current political unrest in the country.

It is our understanding that delays of approximately 2-3 weeks are expected to be incurred for all Type Approval applications under review at CONATEL.

PCS is continuing to monitor the situation and will keep customers duly informed should there be any changes to the current situation.
