Regulatory Alert - St Maarten, Netherlands Antilles

St Maarten, Netherlands Antilles Authority office re-opened – Delays to Type Approval still highly likely

Further to the PCS Regulatory Alert sent on 7th September 2017 regarding the impact of Hurricane Irma on the Caribbean, PCS can confirm that the RF Regulator Bureau Telecommunications and Post St. Maarten in Netherlands Antilles has re-opened with reduced office hours, due to repairs. Delays should be expected to continue for all Applications currently under review whilst the Authority offices undergo repair.

PCS will remain aware of any developments and will keep customers updated as soon as further information is known.
