

Regulatory Update – Trinidad & Tobago

Equipment exempt from Type Approval

The Regulatory Authority in Trinidad & Tobago, Telecommunications Authority of Trinidad and Tobago (TATT), have confirmed that the following devices are no longer subject to Type Approval:

- Computers
- Laptops
- Workstations
- Tablets
- Notebooks

TATT have advised that these devices are regarded as computer equipment and not radio equipment. As such, Type Approval of such devices is no longer required, irrespective of the technology the device supports.

PCS will continue to monitor any developments and will keep customers updated once any additional information is made available.
