

Attending Seminars and Standard Writing Committees

In order to keep up to date with changing regulations and following market trends, Kiwa advises you to attend seminars and standard writing committees. Attending these events will allow you to voice your opinion on matters that will affect the future of your company and your products.

We realize however that these events occur quite frequently and can be extremely time consuming. Kiwa can offer you a solution to this problem. We are happy to attend these events on your behalf in order to reduce your workload.

- We will set an agenda based on your wishes and demands.
- We will issue a detailed report after the meeting is finished.
- We will focus on any issues and topics that are relevant to your interests.
- We will remain in close communication with you through the entire meeting and we will keep you updated as events unfold.
- We allow you to provide input and make requests along the way.

Kiwa is happy to travel to any international events on your behalf.

This service is for all of our customers who are interested in attending seminars or standard writing committees, but don't have the time to do so.

If you want more specific information for your organisation, please fill out the contact form on our website or contact us by phone or email. We will inform you about the information required in order to make a quotation according to your needs. After this we will set up a plan according to your needs and requirements.
