

Overview sustainability services

Sustainability services with Kiwa – from quantification of environmental impacts, certification of sustainable products or services to the development of sustainability standards. Kiwa offers different services in the field of sustainability from quantification of environmental impact to the certification of sector-specific sustainable products or services.

Kiwa's sustainability experts combine technical expertise and vision intending to generate added value through sustainable business practices. Following your corporate goals, we are happy to inform you about suitable options to increase your sustainability performance.

At a national and international level, sustainability requirements are constantly increasing. To meet these requirements, Kiwa offers its customers various services around sustainability.

Our broad portfolio ranges from the quantification of environmental impacts to the evaluation, verification, and communication of the sustainability performance of your products or company:

- Life Cycle Assessment (LCA)
- Environmental Product Declaration (EPD)
- Product Environmental Footprint (PEF)
- Carbon Product/Cooperate Footprint
- ISO 14001/5001
- Concrete Sustainability Council (CSC)
- Circularity
- CSR Performance Ladder
- Management standards regarding the certification of sustainability requirements

Kiwa incorporates its expertise in product testing, monitoring and certification as one of the largest bodies of its kind. Our sustainability experts at Kiwa combine practice and vision to generate added value for your company through sustainable

Kiwa GmbH
De.Nachhaltigkeit@kiwa.com
+491702261294 management.

Kiwa GmbH
De.Nachhaltigkeit@kiwa.com
+491702261294

